Go Teal for Sexual Assault Awareness Month Decorating Contest
Hosted by the Office of Health Promotion
All Month | Judging will take place beginning on Monday, April 16
| Winners Announced Friday, April 27
This contest is open to all Syracuse University Offices and Departments. Offices are asked to decorate their spaces teal to help raise awareness for dating violence. Additionally, residence halls are encouraged to have their residents decorate their doors in the domes and run their own building or floor contests. Offices are asked to register by Sunday, April 15th. Registration can be found on the Office of Health Promotion website.

Campus Wide
It’s On Us Chipotle Fundraiser
Hosted by It’s On Us SU Campus Ambassadors
Monday, April 2 | 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Join the SU It’s On Us Campus Ambassadors for a fundraiser to support the national It’s On Us campaign! Purchase food from the Chipotle at 129 Marshall Street in Syracuse on Monday, April 2 between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. Bring in the flyer located on the It’s On Us SU Facebook page, show it on your smartphone, or tell the cashier you’re supporting the cause to make sure that 50% of the proceeds will be donated to It’s On Us.

Chiptoe (129 Marshall Street Syracuse NY)
Teal Tuesday
Hosted by It’s On Us SU Campus Ambassadors
Tuesday, April 3 | All Day
The SU community is encouraged to wear teal to show their support for survivors of sexual assault. Pick up a teal ribbon from Schine Atrium on Monday April 2nd 2018 from the It’s On Us SU campus ambassadors to show your support!

Campus Wide
Survivor Love Letter Writing
Hosted by It’s On Us SU Campus Ambassadors and Vera House Inc.
Tuesday, April 3 | 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Join It's On Us and Vera House Inc. to write letters to show support and encouragement for survivors. Write as few or as many as you choose!

Maxwell 110
From #MeToo to #NowWhat: Sexual Harassment in the Workplace Panel
Hosted by Women In Communication and Newhouse Career Development Center
Wednesday, April 4 | 6:30 p.m.
Join communications industry veterans, talent development executives, and counseling professionals for a panel discussion of what constitutes sexual harassment and what to do if you encounter or witness sexual harassment in the workplace.

Joyce Hergenhan Auditorium (340 Newhouse 3)
Trans Liberation Now!
Hosted by the International Socialist Organization
Wednesday, April 4 | 7 p.m.
Join It’s On Us and the Trans Liberation Now! organization for a talk and discussion on gender and trans oppression under capitalism. What is the way forward for eliminating sexual assault and gendered violence?

Eggers Hall 101
Cookies and Consent
Hosted by It’s On Us SU Campus Ambassadors
Every Thursday in April | 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.
Join It’s On Us student team as they continue the Cookies and Consent dialogue series. The discussion groups will have different topics each week that address sexual violence and rape culture. Free cookies will be provided (with gluten-free options available). For more information about the topics covered please visit the It’s On Us SU facebook page.

Tolley 204
Imagining a World Without Sexual Violence
Vision Board
Hosted by Student Centers & Programming Services and the Office of Health Promotion
Monday, April 9 to Monday, April 16 | All Day
Imagine a world without sexual violence—what would be different? Come and share your thoughts throughout the week to this visual display that will be located at the entrance of Schine Student Center. At the closing of the week join the organizers for a reading of the board. The Vision Wall is a part of a national movement, be part of the conversation on social media by using the hashtags #It’sOnUs and #WeAreHereSU.

Schine Student Center
Phallacies
Hosted by Theta Chi and the Office of Health Promotion
Monday, April 9 | 7:30 p.m.
(Doors Open at 7 p.m.)
Join the Office of Health Promotion and Theta Chi fraternity for an entertaining and enlightening comedic performance by the Phallacies performance group! With humor and wit we’ll explore masculinity, relationships, and more. Phallacies is an organization working to support masculinities that are healthy for individuals, families, and communities.

Schine Underground
Miss Representation Film Screening
Hosted by It’s On Us SU Campus Ambassadors and SASSE (Students Advocating for Sexual Safety & Empowerment)
Wednesday, April 11 | 7 p.m.
Join It’s On Us Campus Ambassadors and SASSE for a screening of Miss Representation. Miss Representation is a documentary that explores how the mainstream media’s often disparaging portrayals of women contribute to the underrepresentation of females in positions of leadership. Then join both groups for continued discussion at Cookies and Consent.

Location TBD
Jarring III Book Collection Display
Hosted by SU Libraries and Office of Health Promotions
Friday, April 13 to Monday, April 30 | All Day
JARRING III, is a set of award-winning artists’ books that share survivor narratives through a combination of letterpress fine printing, visual art and paper sculpture. The books were assembled by Mirabelle Jones, founder of Art Against Assault, a grassroots arts organization raising awareness about sexual assault through the production of survivor-led art projects.

BIRD Library, 2nd Floor underneath the staircase
Be Orange Training (Student Session)
Hosted by Office of Health Promotion
Friday, April 13 | noon to 2 p.m.
Join the Office of Health Promotion for an interactive 2 hour workshop that engages participants in dialogue about the complexities of sexual violence prevention. Participants will explore what it means to be an empowered bystander. Participants will have the opportunity to apply the concept of empowered bystander to their everyday lives. This workshop was adapted from ©2013 University of New Hampshire Bringing in the Bystander. All participants will receive a certificate of completion for attending the training. Registration is required for this event as space is limited, please register online at the Office of Health Promotion website, healthpromotion.syr.edu

Be Orange training in HOL 107
“Food for Thought” Sexual Assault Campus Resource Fair & Panel Discussion
Hosted by Equal Opportunities, Inclusion and Resolution Services (EOIRS)
Tuesday, April 17 | noon to 1 p.m.
Come meet the individuals from campus departments fighting to end sexual assault on campus and discover the many different options for support available to students, faculty & staff at SU. Light lunch will be provided and resources will also be tabling in the Schine atrium from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Schine 22BB and Schine Atrium
Trivia and Tenders with the PEEHRS
Hosted by the OHP Peer Educators
Encouraging Healthy Relationships & Sexuality (PEEHRs)
Wednesday, April 18 | 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.
Join the Peer Educators Encouraging Healthy Relationships & Sexuality for 3 rounds of group trivia. Test your knowledge of interpersonal violence while enjoying tasty treats.

Sims Hall 331
Trauma Informed Yoga
Hosted by It’s On Us SU Campus Ambassadors and Falk College
Monday, April 23 | 7 p.m.
Join Dr. Dessa Berger-Cioco, of Falk College, and de-stress during a session of trauma-informed yoga. All are welcome! Please bring your own yoga mat.

Location TBD
SVEM Panel: Domestic & Sexual Assault
Hosted by the SVEM Graduate Program
Thursday, April 26 | Time TBD
Join the SVEM Graduate Program in supporting and learning from Kari Potts, Nancy Hogheard Maker, and Brenda Tracy about their experiences with sexual assault from women in the sports industry.

Location TBD
SU Shines a Light on Sexual Violence
All Month
The Hall of Languages will be lit in teal throughout the month to raise awareness and support survivors that have been impacted by sexual violence, or other forms of interpersonal violence.